

An examination of the errant prophetic record, the misrepresentation of historical Church writings, and the misquoting of Biblical Greek scholars carried out by the governing body of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, is an absolute must if a person is considering becoming a member or leaving this organization. Jesus warned people to beware of false prophets. He said they will look genuine but are masters of disguise. Is the Watchtower society one of the false prophets that Jesus warned about? I examine the prophetic, historical, and scholastic record of the Watchtower society along with the biblical and historical definition about the nature of God, the person of Jesus and the true Gospel. Where does the Watchtower doctrine appear in history? This book examines all of these things and more. My 35 years of research are compiled in an easy to understand yet detailed single volume book.
