

Discover the hidden treasures of the Lake District, an area of outstanding natural beauty. Mountain lakes, left behind by receding glaciers offer opportunities to fish, swim and camp at altitudes of up to 2,350 feet. Each of the 25 walks included offers the best of the peaks. Features of interest around the tarns are fully described and detailed maps summarize each route at a glance. Each walk is distinctive, with no tarns or route sections repeated, guaranteeing the widest possible range of areas is covered. Circular routes eliminate the need for backtracking and make each walk convenient for motorists.
