

Zimbabwe's own master of horror fiction takes on the reality of a subject that has gripped the hearts of millions in ways even his stories ever could, and fearlessly separates facts from fiction. For Masimba Musodza, the Devil's greatest trick has not been to make people think he doesn't exist, but rather that he does. Since then, it seems to him that the rest of his country has gone mad, caught up in a Satanic Panic that is as irrational and potentially destructive as any that has seized the U.S. and other Christian nations. The information presented here is based on Musodza's own research. Much of it challenges what is being circulated in the mainstream media, and in the Christian and Rastafarian churches. While nothing like his works of fiction, this too is a book only for those who are not afraid!
