

Introduction This is the eighth volume in the Daily Gospel series. The purpose of this series is to introduce timely topics from the Gospel, which integrate critical values we face in the digital age. The purpose of this series is to introduce appropriate topics from the Gospel, which incorporate critical values we face in the digital age. The Daily Gospel series follows the Catholic Church's liturgical calendar and seeks to offer small portions of the Gospel on a daily basis. The Daily Gospel has been at the heart of the Catholic Church for many centuries, but we have now entered a digital age. This has not changed the desire the faithful have for listening to the Gospel, but only the medium by which they find the word of God and apply it to their lives. This series of reflections dedicated to the Daily Gospel as given to us by the Catholic Church by the Bishops is hoped to be another means that the faithful can retrieve the Gospel thru various electronic media: Kindle, iPhone, tablets and iPad. Jesus is baptized by John, and the Holy Spirit drives him into the desert confront his eternal adversary. Jesus dedicates himself to the task at hand and fasts for forty days and forty nights. He undergoes a testing, but he overcomes his enemy because he remains close to God. (Mk. 1:12-15) There are frightening things we encounter in our life. The more we enter into the world, the more we discover what we haven't known before. Only thru the grace of God and the power of the Spirit, like Jesus, are we guaranteed victory over all of our spiritual foes. All of our ancestors in the Church, every Saint that has ever lived looked to Jesus who first allowed himself to be driven into the midst of their enemies and escaped victorious thru being obedient to the Spirit's gift of fortitude and counsel. Every year we face new challenges that we hadn't seen before. By keeping our heart in the hands of God, we can allow him to enlighten us and direct us in the way that is pleasing to him. Let us become familiar with his ways so that we can be more and more a reflection of the Incarnate Word in our lives, thru grace and prayer. The Daily Gospel series follows the Catholic Church's liturgical calendar and seeks to offer small portions of the Gospel on a daily basis. Into the desert At once the Spirit drove him out into the desert, (Mk. 1:12) As soon as Jesus is baptized he is led into the desert by the Holy Spirit. This was one of the most significant events in the life of Jesus. Countless numbers of Christians have found strength and inspiration thru this event in the life of Jesus. The Holy Spirit drives Jesus away from the city and away from the commotion of Jerusalem into a deserted place where he is alone with God and the tempter. The spiritual life is comfortable when we are surrounded by the comforts and delicacies that the world has to offer. All good things that the world offers are sometimes just a distraction to the greatest good that God can provide and that is intimate communion in prayer and faith. These interior joys can only be experienced at the highest cost to oneself. Jesus will later tell his disciples that those who want to follow him must take up their Cross. Now he is giving them an example in which anyone can follow, since he will leave them the Holy Spirit that will lead them to all truth.
