

His search for her has been timeless, eternal, and ultimately thwarted. Until now . Seth Almore has spent countless lives trying to break the curse that robs him of his soul mate. Each time the cycle begins anew, he meets it with hope, and each time he is left with heartbreak. But as the cycle dawns again, with yet another incarnation, Seth cant help himself. She is extraordinary; is she the one? Julia Morrow has reason to be wary of men. After restarting her life to escape an increasingly dangerous stalker, she has no reason to believe Seth and his stories of reincarnation and curses. But his face haunts her dreams, and her canvasses. He claims that it is a matter of life and death-her death. Can she find it in herself to trust again, or will the cycle turn once again, leaving them both broken and alone?
